Cancellation policy for public and in-house training courses

- Should a cancellation of registration be advised more than 10 working days prior to the course, the student will be automatically enrolled into a future equivalent course or may request a full refund.
- Should a cancellation of registration be advised within 3 to 10 working days prior to the course, no refund is applicable. The full fee will be credited towards another training course and must be used within 12 months by the enrolled student or a nominated substitute or it will be forfeited.
- Where no notice is given for non-attendance, no refund or transfer is applicable and the full fee is forfeited.
- Cancellation policies for specific courses may apply to override this general policy.
- Registration is accepted on the basis that Australian National First Aid Services (ANFAS) and MADEC Australia will not be held liable for any costs incurred due to course cancellation or rescheduling. ANFAS and MADEC will use all endeavours to give advice of any course changes as early as possible.
- Course dates and fees subject to change without prior notice.
